There are many opportunities to get a head start on possible career choices at Marcos de Niza. Being students in high school does not just mean taking the classes to graduate with, but it means taking the classes to prepare you for college and your possible future career. High School is just the place to do this.

Marcos de Niza has something for everyone. These things include all forms of art classes, any music class you may want, journalism classes, audio visual classes, auto mechanics, home economics and any kind of physical education instruction desired. It's all out there now, and students must go out and take advantage of them all!

The opportunities are unlimited, so don't feel left out because you can get involved. Not only in the classes but there are clubs supporting each class. Don't just take classes you need for graduation, take the ones you're interested in also. Take advantage of high school.

To say that it is easy to meet people at Marcos is an understatement. There are over 60 teams and clubs to satisfy every race, religion, gender, weight class, eye color, and ice-cream preference. Some clubs have over 100 members, while other clubs have fewer than ten. The coaches and sponsors of Marcos are prepared to vacuum up even the most unsuspecting, anti-social, freshman from the deepest cracks and crevices of the 100 building. Ask Bill Mosley.

If you are wondering why Bill Mosley can attest to the great involvement at Marcos, it is because he is the one who gave Marcos the spirit spark in September which lasts through fall, winter, and spring. Mr. Mosley, affectionally known as "Bill" around Padre country, attended numerous Padre games, as well as some of our assemblies. His words of encouragement meant a lot to our athletes, and 1984-85 wouldn't have been quite the same with out him.

Glimmers Of = Student Life =

This year the students at Marcos de Niza were one of the most involved schools yet. They got involved by attending all the sporting events, home and away! The students supported all the on and off campus activities as well as making the events at Marcos de Niza become important parts of their lives. There were activities for every personality on campus. One of the exciting things about the student life here at Marcos, is that each person is encouraged to be themselves! One way this was accomplished was during homecoming week with a variety of dress up days. Most importantly, student life is really what the students make of it. Whether it be talking with your friends, attending school functions, or participating in any extra-curricular activites at MdN!

Sophomore Mariah Huarte takes time out to say hello to a friend on the way. During Homecoming week, the lunchtime DJ inspired breakdancing.

Haunts Of Halloween

The scene appears bizarre and out of the ordinary as students and staff alike are walking around campus in very unusual clothes. The occasion was Halloween 1984 at Marcos.

This was the one day in the year that people can be what they have always dreamed of being. Some transformed into rock stars or clowns while others fulfilled their fantasy of being women impersonaters.

Halloween also gave Marcos students and faculty a chance to show their spirit. After spending the day celebrating at Marcos many of the people spent the evening trick-or-treating around Tempe.

Halloween gave everyone a chance to relax and remember their childhood. It was a chance to forget stress of school and homework and added some excitement to an otherwise average day.

Times Of Excitement

The promotion of school spirit has always been a major part of student life at Marcos de Niza. During the 1984-85 school year, assemblies were held in the gym during school usually before football and basketball games or special events. Many times during the assemblies, contests including a Big Mac eating, freshman initiation, cheering con-of class as well. Student Council added to the excitement as they sponsored Spirit Week in which each day of the week had its own tests, and a Buffalo (cake) eating contest. Class competition was held outside special theme.

In addition, DECA organized a special cheering section during the football games and led the rest of the crowd in cheers. They also made many signs and banners for the games which were hung around the school and in front of the bleachers.

Sounds Of Imitation

Rocking

Around campus, Mock Rock was a notable event. Students, faculty, and administration all looked forward to it. Students were excited to see their fellow classmates 'mock' their favorite bands.

Marcos had several of these uproaring events throughout the year. The traditional Homecoming Mock rock, sponsored by student council, had many bands represented. Such bands as The Fixx, Otis Day and the Knights, Prince, Menudo, Sheila E., Billy Idol, and Madonna. These bands were inspired by the enthusiastic crowd.

The crowd favorites in the Homecoming Mock Rock were Prince and Sheila E. The Prince band headed by Darryl Hillman performed "Let's Go Crazy" and encore "Baby I'm A Star." Dawn Tarkington was the lead in Sheila E. and they performed "Glamorous Life."

Although it took a lot of time and hard work on the performers part, everyone else benefited from this golden event.

Days Of Enjoyment

The weekends in Tempe have a definite lack of variety. It's almost certain that sometime on Friday or Saturday night you will find yourself at Burger King. This usually doesn't last very long because if you don't order food you are asked to leave. Parties are a favorite, but they don't happen very often. You can always tell when there is a big party because Burger King is empty. Most people will drive as far as Gilbert, or further, for a party. During football season, Friday night games were packed. ASU Football games on Saturday nights were another option. During basketball season, Friday night games give us something else to do. The most boring of the weekend pastimes is driving around. This is usually the last resort. There are always movies if there isn't anything else going on. The midnight movies on Saturday night are always full. Even the drive-in movies attract a few people on the weekends. During the summer, After The Goldrush and Devilhouse are typical places to go on Sunday night. Whenever we have a Monday off of school, there are huge lines on Sunday night at both places. One of the favorite weekend foods is pizza. Little Caesars and Peter Piper are inexpensive places where a lot of people go for pizza. One thing people have been doing this year is getting together at someones house and renting movies. There aren't too many exciting things going on in Tempe on the weekends, but with a little imagination you can come up with something.

Seasons Of Joy

Although over Christmas break students were away from school on vacation, there were many school related activities going on. Athletes participated in holiday tournaments. Students went on a skiing trip with the ski club, and there was the Christmas dance many people attended. The Christmas dance, which was Saturday, december 15, was the first of the Christmas activities to occur. It was a good social event and something for the students to look forward to.

The Marcos de Niza Basketball team participated in the Chandler Holiday tournament over Christmas break. The tournament took place December 17-20 and was held at Chandler High School. Many talented teams from all around participated in the tournament. Willy Lira, a member of the basketball team, said, "It is one of the best tournaments in the state and it was really fun to play in it."

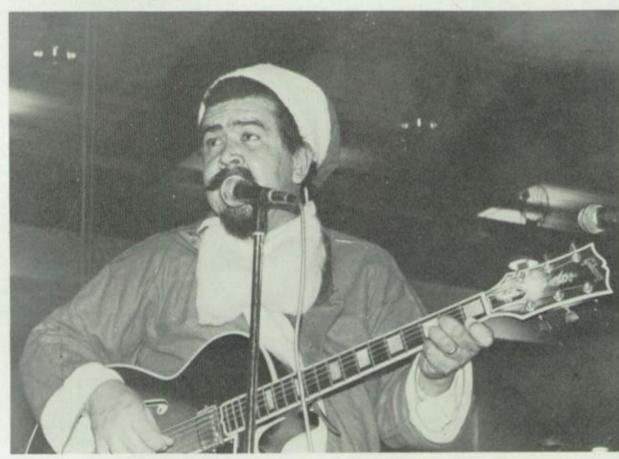

The wrestling team also took part in a tournament during their time off. They participated in the McClintock wrestling tournament held at McClintock High School on Christmas Eve. Bryan Hartman, who took second place in his weight class, said, "It was a fun and competitive way to spend Christmas Break." Bruce Ciolli, who also took second place in his weight class, said, "It was a good experience to get us ready for the meets to come and I enjoyed it alot." The Ski Club took advantage of Christmas Break to go on their first ski trip of the year. Forty-two students and four chaparones went skiing for three days. They left for Purgatory on Jan. 1 and returned on Jan. 5. Mrs. Peterson, one of the sponsors of the ski club, said, "The students were great and we had a super time." If you were bored and had nothing to do over Christmas break, you now know ahead for next year that there are some things to do.

Glimpse Of Heaven

Once again Marcos de Niza's ophomore class sponsored a successful coronation dance. Anita Luera president of the sophomore class said, "At first I thought it was going to be a total disaster, but as it got closer and closer we worked hard and the dance was a big success." Mrs. Thompson's supervision, motivation, and help also made the dance a hit. The theme this year was "Heaven". Everything corresponded with the theme: the colors were blue and silver, the Theme song was "Heaven" by Bryan Adams and the Kings' and Queens' crowns were halos. This years's kings and queens were: Eric Swagel and Leann Lawrence for the freshman class, Eric Weiker and Christy O'Dell for the sophomore class, Darryl Hillman and Jacque Johnson for the junior class, and Fred Duran and Tracey Brown for the senior class. Eric Swagel, coronation king for the freshman said, "I was surprised I won. I thought Bryan (Hooks) was going to win." Junior coronation king, Darryl Hillman was also shocked he won. He commented, "I was surprised. I didn't vote for myself, I voted for Jacque and Craig." The sophomore class did a wonderful job, again.

Steps Of Charity

Three cheers for DECA as they once again raised over $10,000 at their yearly superdance. They gathered approximately 145 dancers for the cause and even though it was extremely tiring, most participants agreed that it was a great time. They received a total of $10,877 in their fight for Muscular Dystrophy. It was well organized and there was plenty of food for everyone and they held several contest in which the winners received prizes. The superdance was held in the Marcos de Niza gymnasium from 12pm-12am.

DECA coordinator, Mr. Dan Greaven said, "Every year I wonder why we do this. But we have a great time and we're doing something positive for this vast world in which we live in. God Bless America. God Bless DECA."

Tony Ambrosia said, "Being there for only a short while was the most fun I have ever had at a dance. To be part of a $10,000 contribution makes me proud."

According to Mike Taylor, "It was a big success!"

From Janet Mills's point of view, "It was a lot of fun and for a good cause too!"

Marks Of Distinction

During the new school year, Marcos de Niza's students displayed a variety of fashion trends. One of the newest trends was the "mod look." This "look" consisted of lace clothing, flourescent colors, torn shirts, cropped pants, daddy's underwear, and dyed clothing. Accessories were needed to make the "look" complete. These accessories included grandma's old purse, gloves with the fingers cut out, lace gloves, big belts, and ankle-high shoes. Movies like "Breakin", "Beat Street", and "Breaking II: Electric Boogaloo" introduced a new style ... the breakdance fashion. Students wore outfits made of parachute material and designer jogging suits with Nike, Adidas, accessories needed were high tops, bandanas, and a large taperecorder. The influence of fashion magazines have had an influence of the men of Marcos de Niza. Added to this "look" were skinny ties with gold tie clips placed across the neck. Darryl said to make the "GQ" look complete you must wear sunglasses.

Junior, Greg Lara demonstated his ROTC spirit by getting a flat top.

Sophomore, Rick Hashimoto has the popular perm hair style.

Awards Of Merit

During the 84-85 school year many Marcos students were honored for their achievements. Some were honored for academic achievements. In academics Georgianna Monnier and Todd Modic were national Honor Society winners. They both received scholarships. Yvonne Garcia, Nancy Snyder, Brent Dunn, and Eric Miller all received an academic letter award for their years of studying. Every year Marcos de Niza offers the chance for students to go to Washington D.C. and talk to government officials. The students chosen this year were: Garcie Jiminez, Nancy Snyder, and Yvonne Garcia.

Marcos students also received top honors in sports. Todd Young was chosen to play on the Arizona All-State football team as wide receiver. Danny Arredondo, A Marcos swimmer, made Arizona All-State swimteam. Along with Danny on the All-state swim team was Lisa Mancuso, William McNulty, also a Marcos Swimmer, became an Arizona State Championship finalist. Will said, "I was really surprised I became a finalist. I was one of the smallest people who competed, and one of the youngest."

Glimmers Clubs

Clubs are absolutely the best way to get involved at Marcos. No matter what a student's specific interest there is a club out there for him; foreign language clubs, service clubs, academic clubs, and sports clubs just to name a few. Clubs can either enhance individuality or help to make new friends. Most importantly clubs can get students involved at MdN.

Clubs also contribute alot of their time and money to Marcos de Niza. They come to sporting events and cheer all the teams at Marcos. Clubs

The Marcos de Niza chapter inducts approximately 60 new members each year who have been nominated for this honor by the faculty. A special evening candlelight ceremony is held in December honoring these students and their parents as they become active members. As a service honorary, N.H.S. provides a tutoring service on campus in mathematics. English, science and foreign languages. Part of the tutoring fees go toward two N.H.S. scholarships awarded each year to Marcos seniors. In addition, N.H.S. members help with the annual "College Night" and also maintain a "Scholarship Information Center" for all Marcos students. All members participate in at least one service project, while continuing to demonstrate the qualities of scholarship, leadership, service and character for which they were selected for N.H.S.

At Your Service

Always on the move and striving to help others is what Jr. Civitan members had hoped to accomplish this 84-85 school year, and they did.

Among the various fundraiser activities were a bike-a-thon to Tucson, a dance-a-thon in March, and the service club took part in helping in the Special Olympics.

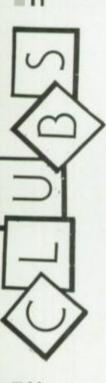

The club officers for this year were llana Haas; President, Susan Fitzgerald: Vice President, Alicia Rusler; Treasurer, and Terri Snyder; Secretary.

"It's really neat to see people who are willing to spend a little of their time."

"My main goals were to get people involved and have fun," commented club president Ilana Haas, "I was really glad to see such enthusiastic members in Jr. Civitan this year. It's really neat to see people who are willing to spend a little of their time to serve others."

DECA Goes Gold

DECA, a student organization designed to develop leadership, awareness of business, community needs and increase marketing understanding, was one of the most popular clubs here at Marcos this past 1984-85 school year.

Mr. Dan Greaven and Mrs. Jane Benedict sponsored this year's club. Club officers include: president, Todd Stetka; vice presidents, Chris Farabee and Allison Baldwin. All their achievements would not have been possible without the 121 active members.

Some of the many activities DECA held this year were the Blood Drive for Arizona Blood Services, a food drive for Saint Mary's Food Bank, a Superdance for MDA which raised over 10,000 dollars, and they also adopted four children in Ethiopia.

"In order to achieve our goals-our club must be very active, and an involved group on campus," commented club sponsor, Mr. Dan Greaven. "When DECA accomplishes something for the community or school, the students benefit in two ways: they feel a sense of pride and also a sense of caring by doing something for someone else."

DECA is a well respected club here at Marcos and is recommended for anyone who likes to have a great time and at the same time help others.

This year the Acappella Choir was under the direction of a new director, Mrs. Darlene Weddington-Clark. All of the choir members worked hard because their sights were set on attending a conference in Colorado Springs. The conference took place in early March.

Last year the students from the Acappella Choir nominated four students to take the following titles: president, Tim Brunty; vice president, Daron Johnson; secretary, Mike Barrie, treasurer, John Bosler; and publicity chairman, Sherri Cox.

The Choir Council met every Tuesday after school to plan special activities for the choir. Such as a jewelry, cookie, cheese and sausage sale as fundraisers. They also spent many Saturday afternoons selling refreshments at the Arizona State University football games. All the money made was put into their own individual accounts to save money for the Colorado Springs Tour where they performed March 7-12.

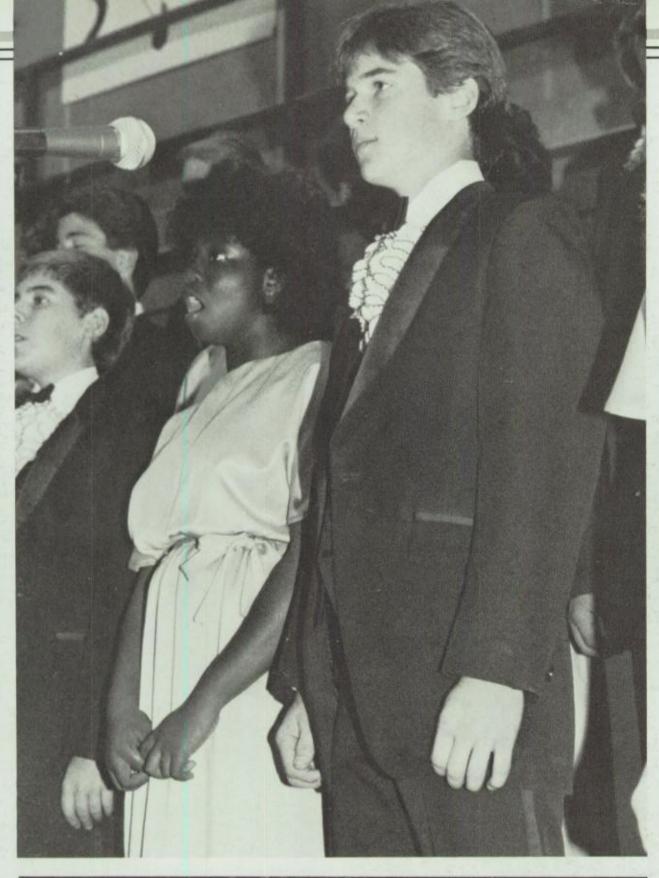

All 34 members of the Acappella Choir were asked to sing in the American Choral Directors Association in California which a choir can attend by invitation only.

Towards the end of the year there is a special banquet for the students who have received the honor of accepting a letter in music. These students worked very hard for this honor and deserved the credit they received.

Stringers Tune Up

To let students learn various kinds of music and performance skills, to increase the public awareness of the talent of young guitar players, and expose the students to possible guitar programs available after school is what the guitar club and Mr. Diaz were trying to accomplish.

This club has won awards in solo and ensemble. They have also performed at ASU, U of A, Guitar Institute of Tech, Spring Concert, and various other places.

When asked what he likes about being in the club, president, Brian Deriso said, "It gives me a chance to improve my playing ability and my performance ability. It also has helped me to see the importance of good leadership without which the club would be harder to control."

Arizona Band and Orchestra Directors Association, Large Ensemble Festival, Mountain States Music Festival, and State ABODA, are some of the awards and performances the orchestra have won.

There goals are to promote the orchestra and let people be aware of string music.

To quote one member "Orchestra is great and the skills I learn now will help me later in life. It also gives me a sense of accomplishment.

Performers Receive Superior

The brown and gold Marcos de Niza Padre Band has put it all together in beat, sound, rhythm. Their working efforts have paid off with their many achievements. The group's uncompromising players put much beauty into all their work. In addition to playing for the Padre football games, they have many outside performances, such as the ASU Band Day, U of A Band Day, and the State Marching Festival. Once again, they have received superior ratings for each.

Mr. Richard Clary, the band director has put much effort into the 1984-85 Padre Band. "We have a philosophy that says you only get out of something what you put into it. That's why we work so intensively. Members of the Padre Band are in the group for the expression of emotions through music. That is our ultimate goal," replied Mr. Clary.

In the spring, the concert band filled their time by playing wind instruments and performing in festivals and other competitive events. Percussion player Sean Paddock commented, "The tremendous experience over all has taught me alot about maturity and responsibility."

Foreign Affairs Flourish

The French Club, Spanish Club, and German Club offer Marcos Students the chance to examine the cultures and languages of foreign countries.

The officers for the Spanish club this year were: Kim Greenbaum, president; Dawn Tarkington, vice president; Elvira Tejada, secretary; and Brenda Bormann, treasurer.

Activities for the Spanish Club included a Christmas balloon sale and Valentine candy sale.

According to Brenda Bormann, "We are doing very well this year, all of our sales have been really successful."

The French Club has kept themselves very busy over this year, also. French dictionaries for the French students, pens and pencils for all Padre fans, and candy were some of the items sold by French Club this year.

Sponsoring a trip to the opera Carmen, making a donation for the restoration of the Statue of Liberty, sponsoring a potluck dinner in a French restaurant, and hosting a booth at the Halloween Carnival in Kiwanis Park were some of their activities.

President, Beth Richardson; vice president, Troy Golladay; treasurer, Karen Frankenstein; and secretary, Lisa Fruehwirth organized all of the trips and activities.

With 15 members, the German club's main goal was to increase the interest in the German culture.

"I wish more students were interested, but even with a small group we've been able to have fun," said Mrs. Hill, the sponsor this year.

The officers for this year were: president, Dee Gompart; vice president Debbie Weis, secretary, Scott MacArthur, and treasurer, Alicia Rusler.

Culture Clubs Grow

"A better understanding of people and their cultures, is what we have strived to accomplish during this year" says Miguel Alarcon, President of International Club. They have made foreign students feel welcome and have brought students together to set up a better relationship between American and foreign students.

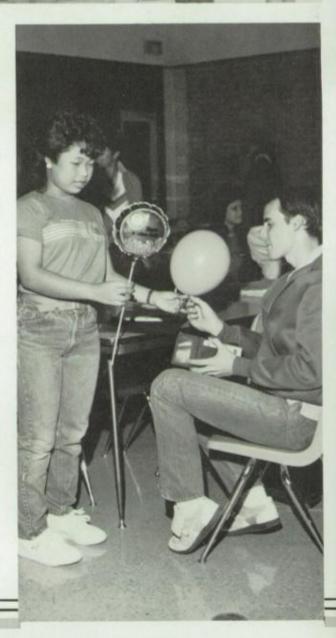

Officers of the International Club are: president Miguel Alarcon, a Junior; vice president Theresa La Rosa, a sophomore; secretary, Nora Gierloff, a sophomore; and treasurer, Alex Tsai, a senior. Some of their fund raisers were a helium-balloon sale and Christmas caroling; this money went to the people in Ethiopia. They have also had a candy sale and a car wash.

Kids getting together, making goals, and helping the community of Guadalupe is what MECHA is all about.

Officers of MECHA are: President Sandy Gonzales, a Senior; Vice President Terry Valencia, a Senior; Secretary Angelica Salazar, a senior; and treasurer Lorenzo Acosta, a sophomore.

Some of their fund raisers were dances, car washes, and they sold mexican food. They had a dinner on Valentine's Day to help senior citizens.

Heritage Heroes

The Native American Club spent many long hours in fund-raising efforts during the school year. Most of these projects provided money to help other people.

They helped to defray the expenses of a Tempe High School student's funeral and they helped three needy families at Christmas.

Their other fundraiser profits went towards t-shirts with Indian artwork on the back.

There are 35 members of the club who meet in the Senior Citizens Building in Guadalupe. Officers for the past year were: Yvonne Garcia, president; Bobby Laguna, vice-president; Connie Garcia, secretary; and Cruzita Laguna, treasurer.

Downhill Racers

The Ski Club started shortly after school started in 1971 and now it's the largest club on campus with 146 people. This year the Club had four ski trips: they were a three-day trip to Purgatory, three days in Telluride, one day in Sunrise, and four days in Utah.

"We have been on two very successful and fun trips to Colorado this year," said Mrs. Peterson, the club sponsor. "During the trip to Telluride, the students enjoyed visiting Telluride High School, a school with only 40 students."

The club had meetings on the first Wednesday of each month. The officers for this year were: President; Ilana Haas; vice president Tracey Brown; and treasurer; April Rainwater.

"For my first time skiing, it was pretty hard, but I had a great time and met a lot of people," said Shannon Munger.

The Speech Team is like a verbal track meet. Though everyone is a member of the team, they compete individually. There are three major divisions: debate, oral interpretation, and public speaking. They have twelve to fourteen tournaments a year.

Mr. Scott Weingart and Mrs. Mary Little are the sponsors and there are approximately 30 members on the Speech Team.

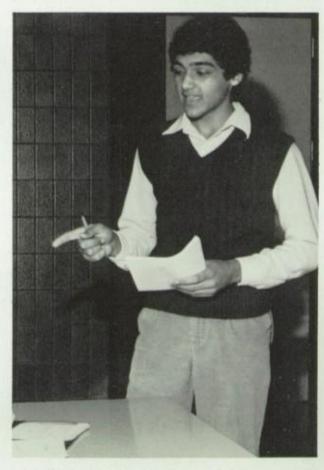

"It's what you make of it. It can be boring or worthwile," said Ken Flint a debator.

Being on the speech team has its advantages. It gives members an op-

Summing It Up

Many people do not understand the purpose of the math club. The purpose is to familiarize its members with computers. Grant Gibson, president, said "The math club is attempting to help members find a sense of comfort on an occasionally hostile keyboard."

The math club also does other things to give aid to their members. Some of these activities are to raise funds for tests to ease the students financial burden, distribute technical information on Apple Computers, and aid students with programming questions and problems.

This club is important to the Marcos student, because its welfare is important to this hard-working club and because the demand for the knowledge of computers is growing; many students must be acquainted in order to succeed.

Jon Spotts spent his 7th hour in the A.V. room making posters for different events.

Equipment To Go

Audio visual, or more commonly known as A.V., stores and supplies equipment, pictures, posters, drawings, and visual aids for teachers use in the classroom. Jon Spotts, who works in A.V. said, "In A.V. we do all sorts of things from making I.D.'s to making and filming shows. We are basically there for the teachers when they need us." A.V. is a vital part of the school teaching process and has been at Marcos since school opened.

Another student, Kathy Marracino in the V.C.S. program, volunteer community services said, "I liked working with Mr. Adelman alot and drawing posters for teachers to use. The people that work there are great."

With the dedication of director, Mr. Adelman; technician, Mrs. Herriman; and Mr. Cosner, who is in charge of the V.C.S. program, they have kept A.V. running smoothly throughout the years.

Peter Janousek, a A.V. helper said, "I liked working in A.V. because I got to use the video equipment."

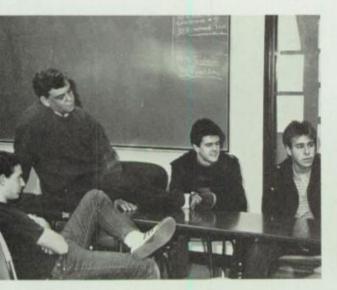

Spotts added, "I've enjoyed being in A.V. this year. I really look up to Mr. Adelman, and I enjoyed working with him and Mrs. Herriman. It was a true honor."

Business manager, Jon Cohen, types up bills to be sent to advertisers in the Padre Press. John Cohen and Greg Seyman check to see if the camera is ready for the shooting of "Mr. Marcos".

Padres Press Onward

The newspaper staff puts out the Padre Press each month to inform the students of upcoming events and activities. "We've done Padre Press, but inbetween issues we've done News you Can Use," said Mr. Scott Weingart. The newspaper class made a video to introduce the school to incoming freshman.

Besides having the Newspaper staff this year Mr. Scott Weingart also taught the Beginning Journalism class. This year, both classes attended the Arizona Inter-scholastic Press Association Conferences in Coolidge and Yuma.

"I think that the beginning Journalism class is a good class to take, because I learned a lot and it was a lot of fun," said Michelle Lowe. In the Journalism I class students learn to write different types of articles, this class made a video about children's safety. "We were really pleased to have a beginning Journalism class because we have not had one before." said Mr. Weingart. To raise money, the journalism classes sold postcards.

"I was also pleased that Tempe Daily News had a teen page because besides writing for Padre Press students can write for a daily paper", added Mr. Weingart.

Precision Top Priority

JROTC has many extra curicular activities. These include Men's and Women's drill teams commanded by Pat Paterson and Frances Warfield, the advanced drill team commanded by Victor Carreras, Color Guard commanded by Steve Wiley, and Raiders commanded by Lee Davis.

The Raiders is an organization which teaches its membes such skills as: first aid, wilderness survival rapelling, hiking, and camoflage techniques. To join this organization one must pass a physical fitness test and complete a 7.5 mile hike near the Superstition Mountains.

The leader of this unit is Cadet Captain, Lee Davis, and his executive officer Cadet first lieutenant, Scott Carpenter.

The Men's and Women's drill team works on perfecting marching routines which they display at different events throughout the year. They are signified by the red shoulder cord worn with the uniforms. Men's drill team is commanded by second lieutenant, Pat Paterson. The women's is commanded by MSG, Francis Warfield.

Advanced drill team is commanded by Maj. Victor Carrares and is for the more superior skilled drill team members.

The Color Guard is a part of the ROTC program responsible for presenting the flag at all home football and basketball games and at special assemblies. The Color Guard is signified by the white shoulder cords worn. It is commanded by MSG, Steve Wiley.

Fabulous Flying Machines

One of this year's newest clubs, the Aviation Club, was founded for further interest in Aviation. Jim Livengood, the president of the club, and the only member to have his pilot's license, has done a great job in getting the club on its feet.

Since the club was new this year, they planned a few fund raisers to boost their treasury. A candy sale that lasted for two weeks earned enough money for them to buy a Sony Scanner which allows them to receive all radio and air craft waves. The remainder of their treasury is going to plane flights where the club members watch other pilots fly.

The students involved in the club are there because of their high interest in Aviation. All of them want to be pilots, stewards/stewardesses or some other career that allows them to be near planes. "The kids are really interested. Because of their choice of job fields, they are exceptional students and club members", says Mr. Schultz, the club sponsor.

Some of the activities of this year were going to air shows in the valley, a pizza party, planning for a model rocket club next year, and working with a flight simulator, an instrument panel of an airplane much like those used in the Drivers Education classes.

Ann Daley, Alex Simon, and Stephanie Placencia review some of the stories they have reviewed.

The Write Stuff

This year the Literary Club had one goal to conquer . . . to publish their annual magazine, Innervision. This magazine contains poetry, short stories, and essays contributed by Marcos students. Mrs. Watson, who has supervised this project for nine years said, "Although most of the works were from juniors, I hope next year there will be more contributions from all classes."

Innervision was published in late April and distributed in early May. It was fifty pages long. The magazine's primary purpose is to share the author's personal reflections. The editors and staff of Innervision made sure this point got across to the reader. This year co-ediotrs were: Julie Porter, Beth Richardson, Stephanie Harkins, and Lionel Deschamps. The staff members were: Ann Daley, Brian Deriso, Christina Hanisch, Meg Laschiavo, Josh Rose, Stephanie Placenia, Alex Simon, Laura Wintrich, Kristie Drzewicki, and Angela Davis. These people enjoyed reading all the stories they received. Lionel Deschamps enjoyed being in the club because "it gives you the chance to read your peers works and the chance to show off your writing talents."

Marcos de Niza can be proud of this club, because their purpose is for the Marcos student.

It's Been A Hard Day's Night

The improvement of graphic design was the main change the yearbook staff strove to achieve this past year. A different size book, an added section of academics, a fold out, a computer graphics cover, the printing of pictures by staff members and expanded coverage were just some of the ways they achieved this.

Mrs. Carolyn James, after working 13 years with yearbooks in Texas, became sponsor of the "Libro de Oro." She said, "With a little effort, I am confident that we can make our yearbook one of the best in Arizona." She added, "It takes a strong commitment from every staffer and we are still working on that."

Kristie Drzewicki, editor in chief, stated, "It took a lot of time, effort, and headaches but it was worth it because it turned out a great book!"

Pete Deluca, head photographer, said, "I am just proud to have been on the yearbook staff that started the tradition of putting out a really great book."

Homemaker's Anonymous

HERO Club is an exciting and fun way for Seniors to learn about and get experience in a home economics related occupation. The students who participate in this club attend school for part of the day and then go to work. The members of this club receive three credits; one credit is for the class, one is for the club, and one is for the actual job. By being in the club, students can get help through the school with finding a job.

There were 24 members of the HERO Club this year. Many of them held positions and had responsibilities toward the club. Marjorie Boydston, the sponsor of HERO Club, says, "HERO is a great opportunity for students to improve their working and human relation skills."

The members of HERO meet every Friday from 10:00-11:00 A.M.

The activities that the students participated in this year are numerous. For instance, there was a canned food drive in November for St. Mary's Hospital. They attended the State Leadership Conference on October 11 and also attended an In-depth Conference in February.

"The State Spring Conference was another great experience for us," said Mrs. Boydston. "Although it's a lot of work, I really enjoy working with the students."

Daytime Drama Unfolds

One of Marco's most exciting and rewarding clubs is the Drama Club led by Ms. Partee. They have attended productions in the valley and participated in the J.C.'s Haunted House last October. They have also had guest speakers from all of the various aspects and fields of the theater.

Selling Padre note cubes, assorted Christmas gifts, bow magic and the popular gourmet suckers were some of their fund raisers.

Their productions include one at the First City of Tempe Community, and a musical production of "The Fiddler on the Roof." A dinner theater format in cooperation with the homeeconomics department was organized and the play was an Agatha Christie mystery.

"People interested in theatre are some of the most creative, fun loving, and sharing people. It's always the highlight of my day to teach and work with the theatre students," says Ms. Partee. "Theatre is life and the creation of a threatrical piece (play or musical) is the ultimate of living, giving, receiving, laughing, loving, crying, and being."

Auto Science

Members of the Auto Club meet before school to talk shop.

Doug and Tom Layne help Craig Stebbins get his car in working order during Auto Mechanics.

This year's Auto Club has been involved in a variety of activities. Along with candy sales, the club made several trips to auto shows on weekends during the past year.

The purpose of the Auto Club, sponsored by Mr. Painter, is to acquaint interested students with the system of auto shows and talk about these shows or upcoming events at meetings. This year's officers were seniors, Cheryl Leatherman; president, and Dan Waters; vice president. "We had a good year." said Cheryl Leatherman.

The Auto Club was trying to raise money by M & M candy sales for a trip to California, but due to lack of funds the trip never came through. "We (the members) just never got enough money together for the trip." said senior, James Engols, Auto Club member.

Getting Down To Science

This year the Science Club has dedicated all of its candy and donut sales to the trip to San Diego, California which it went to on April 12th to the 14th.

The trip organized by sponsors, Mrs. Stephanie Liska and Mrs. Lynne Childers and by president, Tracey Brown and vice president, Danny Arredondo.

The trip started with a bus trip to San Diego on Friday, April 12th. Saturday, April 13th, the club went to Sea World, went for a boat tour, they saw marine biology demonstrations and went on a cruise. They ended Saturday with a beach campfire.

Sunday, April 14th, included trips to Scripps Aquarium, Marine Station, to the beach for observations, and to Sea Port Village for lunch and they also did some shopping. They then left for Arizona at 1:30 that day.

"That was the major thing for the Science Club this year, but next year we plan much more traveling," said Mrs. Stephanie Liska.

Mat Maids enjoy a wrestling match. Rebounders diligently take stats. Cyndi Dueñas and Jennifer Alexander show that Rebounders isn't all work.

Among the many clubs at Marcos are the Hoopsters, Rebounders, and Mat Rascals.

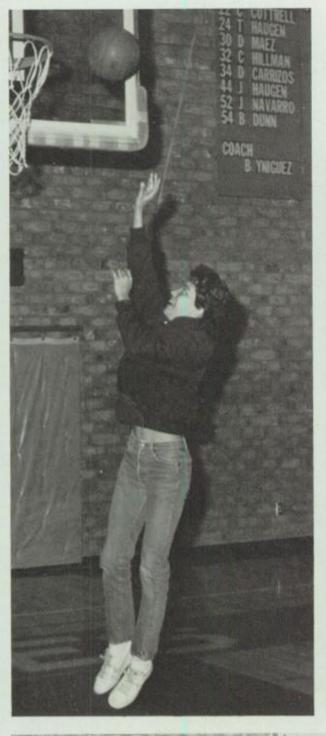

The support of the Hoopsters and Rebounders gave the basketball program an additional boost on and off the court. The many fund raisers put on by the clubs are used for shoes, shirts, and other equipment for the teams. Their efforts and contributions make them one of the most beneficial organizations on campus and help make the Padre's basketball program successful. "With the money made from selling candy, they paid for our food at Kofa and our banquet at the end of the year," said J.V. player Sean Dickes.

Aiding in the success of the Padre wrestling team were the Mat Rascals. They got along great with all of the wrestlers and vise-versa. They contributed a lot to their club, on and off duty with many participants. Helping in so many ways, they kept scores at matches, tournaments, helped keep stats, and put on fund raisers. "We liked being on the Mat Rascals even though only a few were allowed to go to away matches, but we all had a lot of fun," said Deena Despain, president of the club. "Mat Rascals really helped throughout the year keeping score, time, raising money, and were the biggest help at practices and at the games," said John Holgate, J.V. wrestler.

Sports means a commitment: a commitment to oneself and to one's team. Athletes commit themselves to many hours of practice after school to perfect their sport so they can perform well for their fans. A commitment to one's team requires dedication and the ability to withstand the pressure necessary to come through when it counts.

Marcos' commitment to excellence in athletics showed in our teams' performances over the past year. The football team clinched second place in the league and provided hours of excitement as well, the swimmers excelled at divisionals, the cross-country team swept the city meet, and all of the other teams got their seasons off to a promising start. All in all, it has been an action-packed year for Padre athletics.

Backbone Of Padres Leads To Playoffs

With fire in their eyes, the Marcos de Niza Padre Varsity football team picked up where they left off last year. Paul Liano's stripping of the football on the first play of the year characterized what was to come. The team ended the regular season with an impressive 7 wins 2 losses and 1 tie, which put the team in second place in the league B of the Central Division.

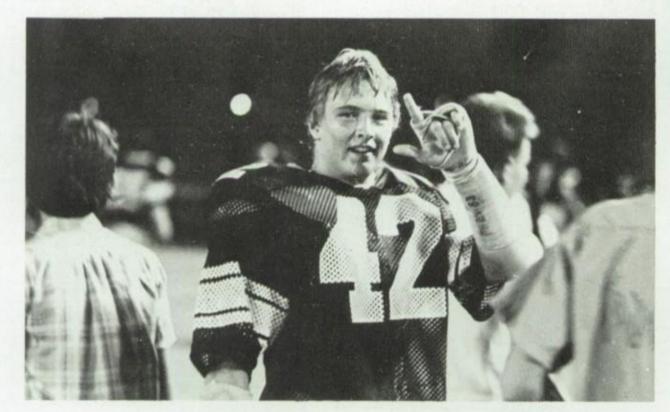

After a .500 start at 1-1, the Padres crushed 5 straight opponents before falling to a highly ranked Westwood football team. Strong play from the leading rusher Joe Laws with 106 carries for 578 yards and leading receiver Todd Young with 28 catches for 707 yards helped add to the success of the team this season. Although Coach Castro says, "There is no doubt defensively the team is very strong and defense is the strong point of the team this year."

One other factor that helped produce the excellent display of football by the team this year was the dedication of the players in the offseason to improve. The backbone of the team though is the coaching staff composed of Head Coach Frank Castro, assistants Norm LaBarge, Rick Molina, and Jim Schnieder and Rayne Simons.

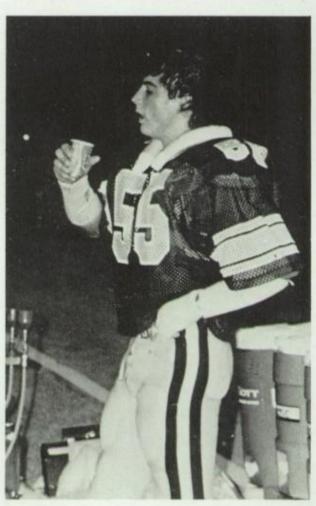

The team's season ended with a hard fought first round playoff game loss to the number one ranked McClintock Chargers (27-14). The experienced seniors of this years team were David Alvarado, Bobby Garza, Randy Guzman, Kevin Haslam, Greg Herman, Pat Keating, Joe Laws, Jerry Martin, Jim Martin, Adrian Moreno, Ramon Ortega, Todd Stetka, Steve Timmons and Todd Young. The outstanding play of the team this year carries on the winning tradition of Padre football.

J.V. Gridiron Team Improves At Seasons End

A season of highs and lows is the best way to describe the year for the J.V. football team. "We had a chance to win most of our games this season, but they all seemed to slip away near the end," explained receiver Jeff Haugen.

Rick Molina the head coach of the squad, was pleased with the improvement of the team near the end of the season. "Lack of experience was our worst problem this year," said Molina. Top sophomore players were moved up to the varsity squad this year.

Although a 3-5 season was the conclusion, many things were accomplished, rookie players got experience and learned to work as a team.

Their three wins this season were over Corona, Coronado, and Tempe. A strong factor for these victories, was the fantastic passing attack, led by Sean Warren. Warren, who passed for almost a thousand yards this season, and also played defense. The targets of his attack were leading receiver John Colby and leading scorer Jeff Haugen. He also had help from Mike Ostland and Jeff Sanuik, who played in the backfield.

Leading the defense was Corwyn Lacy, who had the most tackles. Other top defenders were Mike Markham, Jason Mullis, and Bruce Ciolli.

Freshman football team this year ended up with a 5-3 record. Coach Huber, the head coach, thought his team had a good attitude and worked hard in practice. Coach Urchike and Geraghty were pleased with the heads up plays of the defense, which always kept us in the game.

Hard Work, Practices Pay Off For Cross Country Runners

Practicing daily throughout the summer and all during the regular season, the boys cross country team proved that hard work pays off. The varsity team finished the season with a very impressive 13-3 record. The boys J.V. team finished 15-1. Both of the teams took first place in their city meet. The freshman team ran with J.V. most of the season, but also finished first in their city meet.

The girls's team all ran varsity this year. They finished with a 4-7 record and took third in their city meet. "The cross-country meets provided much needed experience that will help us in the upcoming years," said Michelle Hillman, the most valuable runner on the team this year. Their coach, Mr. Pond said, "It was a hard decision as to who would recieve the awards, since everyone had great team spirit"

Coach John Dutton, the coach of the boy's teams said, "I dedicated this year to seven seniors who have been with me for three years." He also said that the team looks tough for the next three years with freshman Burt Perrine and Carl Winkelman, who ran varsity this year.

There were seven runners named to the All-City Team. They were Alfredo Benitez, Scott Gesin, Mario Riley, Mike Maez, Steve Hillman, Geoff Chalmers, and Karl Winkelman. The top runner for varsity was Alfredo Benitez, who received the Most Valuable Award.

Since only seven people could run varsity, there were twenty three people on junior varsity. Brian Hofmann, a top runner on J.V., ran very well throughout the sixteen meet season. Coach Dutton said, "Brian was one of the top runner for junior varsity because he did well at the meets, and that came from hardwork in practice."

All of the runners contributed greatly to the teams, and all had a good sense of personal pride. That is why the runners worked so hard and had such a great season.

Successful Season For State-Minded Swimmers

A team fairly evenly balanced between freshman, sophomores, juniors, and seniors, the Marcos de Niza swim team is not just 30 kids who only want to "kill McClintock at all cost!" There is more than that in Marcos' program. "Our primary goal was to have fun, "said Head Coach Carol Caruso. "And that's exactly what we did." Although Coach Caruso seemed to have a relaxed attitude about the teams win-loss record, 1984 turned out to be a very successful year for them.

At the end of the season the boys were fourth in the division, which is second highest they have ever placed. Seniors on the team were Danny Arredondo Mark Herrmann, Mike Herrmann, John Cohen, Kelly Gibbs, Eric Hall, and Diana Heckart.

State swimmers for Marcos de Niza were Danny Arredondo, Mark Herrmann, Mike Herrmann, Will McNulty, Pat Patterson, Karrie Arredondo, Kelley Arredondo, Elaine Migala, Christy Dorsey, Lisa Mancuso, Kim Nickles, and Cammi Behrens.

The boys ended the season with a record of 4-4, fourth in the divisionals, and eleventh in the state. The girls' record was 3-5, tenth in the division.

Hard-Working Golfers Excel In Tourneys

It was a good season this year for the girls of the Marcos de Niza golf team. The consistent play of the girls kept them close in all their matches.

The golfers of this year's team were Stephanie May, Maggie Cooley, Kim Grabek, Susan Fitzgerald, Ilana Haas, Shelly Ashford, Kristy Vanny, Kari McDonald, and Megan McCurdy. The hard work and dedication of the girls helped them gradually improve throughout the year. The team finished fifth in the state with a winning record of 9-7.

The two most valuable players were Stephanie May and Maggie Cooley. They each were averaged about fourteen over par for nine holes. The Most Improved award was shared by Kim Braybek and Susan Fitzgerald. Four of the top six golfers will graduate but the top two will be back for a year. Coach John Lassen will be looking forward to.

The boys golf team last year had a very good season. With several returning players the Padre golfers showed lots of promise for the 1984 season.

The top six golf this season for the Marcos team were senior, Tim Haugen, Juniors Craig Cottrell, Scott and Todd MacPherson, Kevin Walters, and Lionel DeChamps.

Coach Ron Cosner said, "the team looked good this year from an experience standpoint, The team played well throughout the season but ran into a midseason slump."

The Padre golfers posted 11 wins, 14 losses, and 2 ties for the year, this record placed them in sixth place in the state tournament by six shots.

There were three different awards given out at the end of the season. Tim Haugen, who was the first four year letterman in golf at Marcos de Niza, aquired the Joe Selleh award. Tim also shared the most improved award honors with Mark Vrabel. Lastly the Most Valuable player award was given to Scott MacPherson.

The Padres had a good golf season this year and Coach Cosner says, "Experience for next year looks good."

Underclassmen Support JV-Frosh Team Efforts

The majority of the spirit at Marcos comes from the help of 13 girls that make up the freshman and J.V. cheer lines. The freshman girls are: Marne Page, Alison Rose, Dawn Layton, Berta Quintera, Sue Anthony, Gina Fetty, and Lisa Cleland.

Every Tuesday, and Friday these girls cheer on the freshman boys basketball.

In order to be selected for the cheer line the participants were required to know a variety of jumps, cheers, and splits. Seven girls were chosen to represent the freshman class and boys basketball team.

"Being the captain of the cheerline ment a great deal to me. I learned about friendship and cooperation ... Besides we all learned to control ourselves," commented Lisa Cleland. Supporting the Junior Varsity basketball team are the following six girls: Traci Davis, Kelly Ray, Beth Broeker, Joely Armijo, Tammi Porter, and Amy Hayden. In addition to the normal requirements these girls participated in a summer cheer camp which is held in Flagstaff every summer.

This year Traci Davis came home with the title of "All American Cheerleader." A lot of hard work went into this achievement.

The sponsor of both cheerlines at Marcos is Miss Carol Caruso. Miss Caruso assists in creating the movements. She's dedicated and committed herself to this purpose of sponsoring these girls for many years.

"The team was fun to play on and I really enjoyed it. - Carl Cooper

Outstanding Plays For JV Soccer Team

The JV soccer team this year had a very good season. With outstanding play from this team this year, the varsity team next year should be very good and exciting.

Some of the strong players of this year's team were Carl Cooper, Junior goalie Brian Kilkenny, and Freshman Chris Keifer, Keifer put in most of the goals for the team and is looking for a varsity position next year.

Coach Hugh Bell said the over-all season was a big success. Coach Bell also added, "I love coaching these boys, they do a fine job." The players got along well together and they really played as a team. One of the strong points of the team was their ability to play defense. The leader in defense of the Padres was Ward Rasmussen who did an outstanding job of stealing the ball and getting it back up the field.

All in all the year was super for the JV soccer team. All the players are looking forward to next year's season and hope to make varsity. Finally, Carl Cooper remarked, "The team was fun to play on and I really enjoyed it."

This years Padre soccer club was a young team, with talent but not enough experience.

Inexperience Shows In Young Squad

fense," explained halfback Eric Weikert.

This year's Padre soccer club was a young team, with talent but not enough experience. The team was lead by Chris Farabee and an outstanding defense. The defense was made up of almost all seniors. "Goalkeeper Kevin Walters was outstanding this year with many key saves in clutch times," explained Weikert. He will be back next year, with many other players. Other strong defenders were center fullback Scott Gesin and left fullback Matt Hewart.

On the offensive side was a young team, mainly made up of sophomores, Dave Heckert, a junior, was the leading scorer along with Eric Weikert. "When we had the opportunities, we couldn't put the ball in,"

"We couldn't generate our of- explained forward Mike Chalmers. Under the coaching of head coach Jack Smythe, they turned out an 8-6-1 season. "Starting their first two games, both losses, showed the inexperience," said coach Smythe.

> They got it together their third game and beat Westwood two to one. During their Fiesta Bowl Tournament they went on to beat Yuma 1-0, who they tied during regular season play, but then lost to Kofa 2-0. They took third place, by beating Mt. View 2-0. Warren Gesin, a halfback, scored both goals that game in the last few minutes to take the win.

They succeeded in making divisionals but lost to Chaparell 2-0.

Leaders for next years team should be Kevin Waltersand, Eric Weikart, Warren Gesin, and David Heckart.

State Playoffs End High-Scoring Season

The Marcos de Niza basketball team this year had a slow start but got back on track quickly to finish with a fine season.

Returning seniors Tim Haugen, Danny Carrizosa, and Craig Hillman provided strong play for the Padres throughout the year. The key this year however was the team concept and each player having a role. While the teams play was outstanding the consistency was something to be desired. Head coach Bob Yniguez attributes the team's success to hard work and dedication.

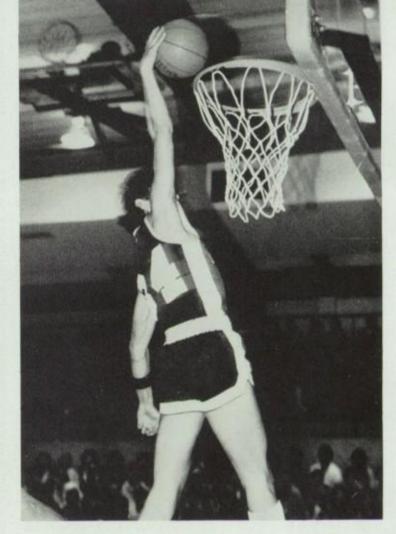

The leading scorer on the team was Craig Hillman. The leading rebounders were Craig Cottrell and Craig Hillman. The leaders in assists were Danny Carrizosa and Darryl Hillman. The all-around team defense was the biggest asset though and it helped the team in many close games.

Although the first team did a fine job throughout the season the second team helped, and they named themselves the "Gold Rush". This team consisted of Joel Navarro, Willy Lira, Brent Dunn, Jeff Haugen, and Grag Haynes who commented, "I didn't mind sitting on the bench because the starters were so exciting to watch."

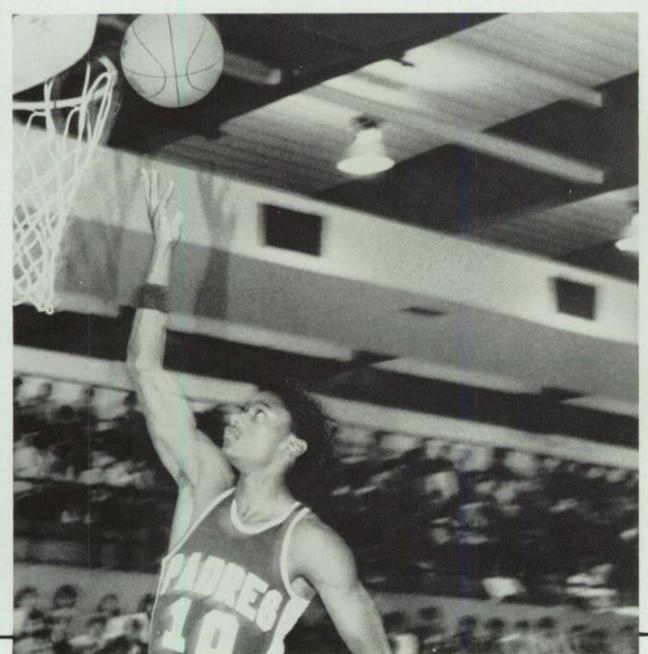

The team had an overall good season and spectacular play was displayed thoughout the whole year from start to finish. Also, the team next year looks very good with several players returning for the 85-86 season.

Hard Working Team Comes Up Short

The Freshman basketball team ended up with a record of 7-9. The team consisted of 12 players. "We really haven't had a player carry us, so we substitute a lot," said coach Mike Matwick. Bryan Hooks was leading scorer with 10 points per game average. Bryan was also the leading rebounder. The most improved players were Barry Julian, Drew Colby, and Eric Placencia.

"We had a good year and we learned a lot, now we have the ability to do a lot better in the future years," said Eric Swagel. The team will be looking to next year," said Bryan Hooks.

The Junior Varsity basketball team had 13 players. They ended up with a record of 0-20.

"It's been a season of perseverence," said coach Al Merino. The team's leading scorer was Sean Warren with an average of 12 points a game. The leading rebounders were Scott Schutz and George Snyder with an average of five points a game. "The team always worked hard in practice but it never ended up right in the games," said Coach Merino. "We had good coaching and we worked hard in practice, which should help in upcoming years," said Sean Dickes.

J.V. and Frosh Teams Work Hard For Success

Heavyweight, Robert Guerrero, walks back to the bench after capturing a win against Tempe High.

Michelle Pierce, Dee Gompert, Deena Despain and Coach Huber watch the wrestling match with anticipation. The girls spent the season as mat maids. Throughout the history of Marcos de Niza, many people have participated on the freshman wrestling team, which has always been under a very good coach. This year the twenty seven member team was coached by Jim Schnieder. Some freshman had the opportunity to wrestle on the junior varsity and the varsity level, which is a tremendous accomplishment. "We are looking for all the kids to help with varsity next year." said coach Schnieder.

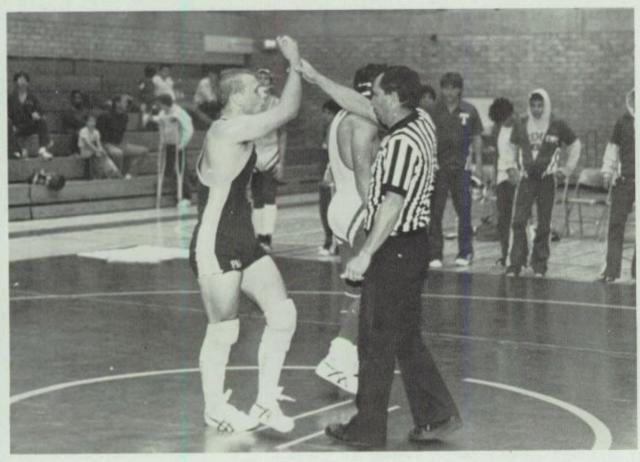

This year the freshman team achieved a record of nine wins and one loss, which is the best freshman record in Marcos de Niza history. The team lost to Apache Junction by only one point, which gave them their only loss. "The reason for the loss was lack of participation at practice over Christmas break," said coach Schnieder, "but overall I was pleased with all the wrestlers."

"We started the season off slow, but we came back very strong at the end of the season. Most of us J.V. wrestlers will be going Varsity next year." described Bruce Ciolli of the 6-4 J.V. wrestling team. Showing a lot of improvement were wrestlers like Bruce Ciolli (6-2 on the season), Mike Ostland (5-2), Lorenzo Acosta (4-0), Mike Hubbard (5-0), Javier Moreno (4-2), and David Gonzalez (4-1). These wrestlers came up with the wins when we needed them combined with the rest of the extrodinary wrestling team. Wrestlers with the most pins or head hunters with four pins were Javier Moreno, David Gonziley, and Bruce Ciolli.

Coach James Weed was very impressed with two matches, the Corona del Sol match, where we won 45-26, and the Chandler match, which we won by the score of 58-14. "Half of the J.V. team will be competing on the Varsity level next year. "Over the summer though they need to wrestle in tournaments and attend wrestling camps if they are to compete successfully next year," remarked Coach Weed.

"All our hard work paid off with a winning season, after we got off to a slow start," expressed Mike Ostland.

Varsity Wrestling Team Needed More To Win

"We had an alright season, but things didn't pull together for us when we needed key things to happen," said Senior Rick Mascia.

The Varsity Wrestling Team went 2-6 under head coach Bob Urchike. Losing by very close scores, they still looked good. They just could not come up with it to win when they really needed it to win matches like: the McClintock match loss by one match, Loss to Saguaro by two points, and the loss to Tempe by one point.

"We should have had a better season, if we could have come up with the important victories when needed to win matches " said Senior Kelly Stetson es," said Senior Kelly Stetson.

The team was really strong with wrestlers like Steve Fetty (18-6 on the season), Rick Mascia (14-1), Kelly Stetson (20-5), Rick Janaski (14-6-1). These wrestlers were the most outstanding out of all the supreme Varsity wrestlers.

"We have a good chance of placing in divisionals and having many for our wrestlers going to the State Tournament like Mascia, Fetty, Stetson, and Janaski."

Varsity/JV Track

"If it's true a head coach is as good as his assistants, than I am doing great." - Coach Simons

Runners, Field Eventers Work To Improve

A new coaching staff was the big change in Padre track this year. With first year head coach Simons at the helm the team did a fine job. Coach Simons commented, "It is is true a head coach is as good as his assistants, than I am doing great."

This new coaching staff was composed of Phil Harris in charge of disc, Ron Houser running the sprinters, relayers, and hurdlers, Norm LaBarge handling the field events, James Weed taking care of the distance runners, and as mentioned before Head Coach Rayne Simons.

The strong point this year was the fact that a lot of people came out for track as this team consisted of more than eighty trackers. They were led by seniors Jim Martin, Tim Haugen, Scott Geisen, Dave Maez, Kevin Huff, and and Kevin Haslem. Several underclassman did a fine job also and they were Steve Dougherty, Alfredo Benitez, Jeff Sanuik, Burt Perrin and Jeff Haugen. While the team had a lot of numbers, they didn't have a lot of sprinters. The sprinters that did come out though, did a great job and scored a lot of points. All in all, the track team did a fine job and Coach Simons and his staff are looking for an even better season next year.

Marcos Tennis Shows Strength, Potential

This year the varsity tennis team was strong, led by two foreign exchange students, Peter Englund from Sweden, and Jeorge Delgado from Spain. The Varsity only lost one player due to graduation. Coach Deacon said, "We have a lot of depth between the top ten tennis players." Two returning Varsity players are Steve Mousser and Peter Janousek. Coach Deacon also remarked, "We have some very good J.V. players who are working hard to play on Varsity." He was referring to Todd Modic, Gerardo De Los Santos and Will Corbin. Coach Deacon Quoted, "Scott Brody and Matt Jones are playing real well in Doubles Matches around the state." The Varsity team works hard for the amount of hours they put in after school, and on their own. Coach Deacon said, "This is the year we have a chance to go to state, and also win with a great victory season."

Boys Tennis

JV Improves Record; Frosh End 9-3 Season

This was the season for the Freshman tennis team as they took city this year with a (9-3) record, led by Scott De-Maris and Gavin Smith. Coach Draper said, "The team had very little prior experience, but they worked extremely hard." Draper also commented about the hard hours the Freshman team put in after school this year. Also, according to the coach, Darin Chalquist was the most improved player during the season. "I am very happy about the number of players who showed up and I hope it's like this from now on," he added

Coach Deacon was very encouraged when he saw his Junior Varsity team. He was please with the number of students that tried out this year. Each Junior Varsity player that works hard during their practice, that's why they have a tough Junior varsity team this year. Most of the players are from the 9-3 frosh team who went on and played Junior Varsity. Some are from the last year J.V. Team, who are helping to keep the Junior Vasity Team strong this year. Coach Deacon incourages the students to come out and watch them, because this year they're hot and going to the top.

The freshmen women's tennis team ended their season 7-5. "Tina Dale helped our team the most," replied Staci Schoff. Hollyn McPhaters was the number two player. "I really enjoyed playing on the team this year and the coach is very nice," said Staci Schoff. It is hard to say who is the most improved player, because they all play very well. These freshmen players, at least most of them, will go on and become a Junior Varsity star.

J.V. had a strong, and well built team this year. Some of their outstanding players are Lisa Mancuso, Karen Baerst and Tammy Porter. They started their season by playing a tough team which is Saguaro, who was ranked number eight in the nation. They played well and showed them we are the fighting Padres.

Disappointing Season Ends Long, Hard Workouts

The Marcos de Niza Varsity Baseball team has eight returning lettermen and some upcoming players that should contribute to the team a lot. "We have really looked forward to this being a good year and we hope to make the playoffs", said head coach Tom Huber.

The returning players who are the leaders of the team consist of Joe Laws, Pete DeLuca, Bob Morenzoni, Jerry Martin, Greg Haynes, David Ryan, Steve Timmons, and Chi Cho Garcia.

The team has a good attitude towards the season and have some very good practice sessions. The team also played well in the annual Brown and Gold game. Huber said that they have been hitting with more power than in past years; and the team has stronger arms and more speed than before. These are all essential to a good team.

"We set some goals before the season started", began Huber. "Our first goal was to make it to the playoffs. Second we want to hit over .300 as a team. We also hoped to play good all around defence and cut down on errors, which will hurt us in games." he added.

Huber said "We look extremely well in practice because our kids work hard, and I think we have the potential to make the playoffs." Varsity player Pete Deluca added "We know that we have a lot expected of us this year and we are working hard to live up to those expectations." David Ryan stated, "we are working hard in practice in the attempt to make the playoffs and maybe be state champions." Although the team lost their first game to McClintock, which was attributed to errors, the players look to improve on their mistakes and still have a very sucessful season.

Great Hitting Potential Follows Through For JV

The J.V. Baseball team is looking for a good season this year with many starting player's from the last years freshman team. The team practiced very hard every day from 3p.m. to 5p.m., in these two hours worked on fundamentals. The team practiced on fielding but mainly they worked on their hitting fundamentals. The team had a hard schedule facing them this year including a trip to Kofa.

Coach Adler said, "This team has great hitting potential and shows alot of team spirit. The team has alot of hustle, and shows alot of pride."

The strong defensive players, were Tim Langan, STeve Watson, and Roy Langston. The big hitters for this year were Ed Smart, Tim Langan, and Bill Levine.

"This has been the best group of talented girls that I have ever seen come through this school."

Season Proves Exciting For Female Hoopsters

The Marcos de Niza girls varsity basketball team coached by Mike Matwick, looks to have a successful and exciting season ahead of them. The team has eleven members, and out of those eleven, five of those played varsity basketball the year before.

The returning lettermen are: Maggie Cooley, Stephanie May (co-captain), Linda Perkich (co-captain), Delynn Whipple, and Joey Weber. The team will look to these five girls for leadership.

The team hopes to go a long way this year because they are so deep in talent. Coach Mike Matwich said, "This has been the best group of talented girls that I

Joey Weber, one of the returning varsity players said, "I was really looking forward to this season because we had some good players and a good team. We have worked and hopefully it has paid off."

Coach Matwick said that the major goal for this season was to make the Central Division playoffs, and move into the state tournament.

Arrow Girls Concentrate On Varsity Requirements

Archery is a sport which requires intense concentration at all times. "You can't just develop the concentration which this sport requires over night, it takes many years of practice," said Bob Urchike, coach of the archery team. Because only five girls shoot on the varsity level, there is severe competition to compete with.

The team consists of nine girls, with the top five people competing on varsity. Returning letterwomen are Shelly Ashford, Chris Sweeney, Angela Stall, Michelle Reamer, and Anita Leura.

"Angela, Michelle, and Anita, who are all sophomores, will be the key to this season," said coach Urchike, "if they improve this year as much as they did last year, they will turn the season around."

The Marcos de Niza archery team, which competes in one of the toughest divisions in the state, will try to improve on last year 4-6 record." Since we have such a young team this year, my major goal is to have a five hundred season," said coach Urchike, who is assisted by his daughter Pam in coaching the team.

Upcoming seasons look bright for the team since they have such a young group of girls. "Everyone is coming back next year except one person, so our experience and talent should be greater than this year's", smiled Coach Urchike.

Twins Swim Seriously

Lettering on the Varsity swim team for the last three years, is one accomplishment senior twins, Mark and Mike Herrmann shared.

The Herrmanns have been swimming since they were four years old. Mike said, "When I was little I enjoyed swimming and so I started swimming competitively."

Most of the Herrmanns time is spent in practice. They practice for four hours a day. Both agreed that "It's hard getting school and work done cause a lot of the time is spent on swimming."

The Herrmanns both have goals which they are striving to meet. Two goals they share are that of taking state in swimming and receiving scholarships. Mark has already accomplished one of his goals, that of taking state. "I have held five state records in relays. That was a hard goal for me to accomplish."

Both Mark and Mike have other interest besides swimming. Mark enjoys photography and hunting. Mike also enjoys hunting small game plus he likes four wheeling and camping.

According to the Herrmanns "It's hard getting school and work done cause a lot of the time is spent on swimming."

According to Ms. Caruso, "Mike and Mark have been a real asset to the Padre swim program."

"I am going to miss all the team spirit and people in High School swimming but am looking forward to college," added Mike.

Cox A Drama Natural

Being an active part in all aspects of drama, is how junior, Sherri Cox spends most of her free time.

According to Cox, she got used performing in front of people after taking dance classes for ten years, which was before high school. She then enrolled in a drama class and really loved, which sparked a special interest.

Cox was a two-star Thespian and was named Best Thespian of 1984. Along with her drama, Cox also received a letter in Acappella choir and a leadership award from the Optimist Club. She also was an officer of the Choir council and vice president and secretary of the drama club.

Drama seems to be first and foremost in her life. Cox really likes the personal rewards she gets. "The greatest reward I received is the chance to work with some fantastic, talented people, she said. "Theatre also has a way of making one more self-confident and it really helps you in dealing with people."

Junior Stephanie Hutchins enjoys helping people as she coaches fifth and sixth graders in soccer at the Y.M.C.A.

Coach Gets Real Kick

For junior Stephanie Hutchins, coaching soccer is one of her many interests. She is a Y.M.C.A. soccer coach for fifth and sixth grade girls from Kyrene del Cielo.

"I've played Y.M.C.A. soccer for seven years and have participated in the South Bank Soccer Club for two years," she said. Stephanie first became acquainted with this sport when she was seven years old. "Laura Sisulak and I wanted to play but there were no teams for young girls at time," she added. Stephanie's eagerness to play placed her on the boy's team.

Although Stephanie's main interest lies in soccer, she also participates in the Ski Club, Rebounders, and the Archery Team. Volunteer work seems to be very important in Stephanie's life. During the last two summers, Stephanie has worked over 275 hours at St. Lukes hospital in Tempe. Stephanie's attitude toward others defines care and understanding.

Herriman Camp Winner

Practice and hard work resulted in Muffie Herriman being chosen as an All-American Cheerleading Finalist. Out of 250 cheerleaders at cheer camp last summer, Herriman was chosen as one of the best six there. Also at this camp our varsity cheer squad won best squad at camp," said Muffie.

Herriman has been cheerleading for many years. "Watching the varsity cheerleaders at M.D.N. when I was little was my main encouragement to start to cheer," she said. Since then she has cheered three years in Pop Warner, and has been a freshman, J.V., and varsity cheerleader.

Herriman's participation in cheerleading, basketball, coaching Pop Warner, and being a member of the ski club has been an asset for many reasons. "Being in these activities has given me a chance to a Who's Who Among American Students scholarship. Also it has made my life more interesting," said Herriman.

"Watching the varsity cheerleaders at M.D.N. when I was little was my main encouragement to start to cheer."

Being an All-American finalist and being in many school activities has given Herriman many rewarding opportunities.

Officer A Music Lover

President of the junior class Jacque Johnson finds music and people fascinating. She enjoys working with others. "If I can make someone smile, then I feel that I've accomplished something very special," commented Johnson.

Her future plans include going to a university in California and majoring in music.

Jacque first became interested in singing when she took voice lessons. She enjoys being able to express herself through music.

Although music holds a special place in Johnson's life, she still finds plenty of time to be involved in Junior Civitan, Student Council, Black Student Union, A Capella, and Deca.

Johnson's quiet confidence and self-assurance are apparent as she said, "No matter how 'far out' your dreams are, if you believe in yourself, anything is possible." She added, "If you give up your dream because of fear, then you're not hurting anyone but yourself."

Junior model, Machell Meacham, waits for her first class to begin.

Mecham Begins Career

For junior Machell Mecham, modeling has become a very enjoyable job as she works two to five days a week for the L'Image Casablancas Modeling Agency. She has been very pleased with her income as she makes $25 an hour, and at the end of the year, will earn up to $75 an hour.

After only modeling for three weeks before the International Modeling and Talent Convention, Mecham placed 4th in her division. "Placing fourth in my division was really exciting because I had only been modeling for three weeks and most of the other models has been training for much longer," she said.

Mecham first got into modeling through her father. He suggested modeling as a special interest after her family recently moved from California to Tempe.

Besides modeling, Mecham also likes biking and she has just started triathelons.

Mecham feels that the money is good and she is very excited about moving to New York for the summer. She will be going to New York with Foster-Fell Modeling Agency.

"Placing fourth in my division was really exciting because I had only been modeling for three weeks and most of the other models had been training much longer."

Mecham's plans for the future include either finishing high school in New York with a private tutor or coming back to Marcos. She also plans to attend college at one of the Ivy League Schools or Brigham Young University and plans to study law.

She added that she has attended three different high schools but prefers Marcos.

Junior Craig Cottrel, a top golfer at Marcos, looks confident as he prepares to travel for the tournament in Yuma.

Golfing Cottrell's Bag

"Golf is a game of dedication and a lot of practice," stated Junior Craig Cottrell. With that theory Cottrell has succeeded in climbing his way to the top, in both the varsity golf team and the Phoenix Golf Team in which he is also currently involved.

Cottrell's father introduced him into the game, and with a lot of encouragement from both his father and the coaches, he has succeeded in winning various pro-tournaments around the valley, such as the W.S.G.A. Jr. Golf Tournament and Desert Mashie Club Championships. Cottrell has also lettered in Varsity Golf for three straight years.

Aside from golf, Cottrell is involved in basketball and track, and is a part of student council, B.S.U. and Ski Club. Obviously by his 3.6 grade average, he is also dedicated to his studies. His future plans include attending college and possibly going professional.

His advise to those interested in golf was to play as much as possible in every tournament in the area.

For sophomore Traci Davis, dancing, acting, and a grade point average of 4.0 are only a few of her accomplishments.

She is a member of the Tempe Dance Company and at the same time teaches a class of her own.

Davis has been interested in dancing for the past twelve years. Her dancing consists of tap, jazz, tumbling and ballet. "I enjoy performing on stage," said Davis.

A scholarship to the Bobby Ball Talent Agency was the one special factor that started her acting career. She has been acting for nine years and has been in three movies and a number of commercials.

Davis is also active in school activities as she participated on the junior varsity cheerleading team last year. Her 4.0 grade average reflects her dedication to do well. Traci plans to graduate by her junior year and continue her education by going to college.

"Fun is not the only important thing in school," said sophomore Warren Gesin, "Although work isn't the only thing either."

Gesin was the varsity football place-kicker during the 1984 season. "Warren Gesin will be one of the outstanding kickers in the state. As a sophomore he did an outstanding job for us, but what he will do for us the next two years will be great," said his coach, Frank Castro.

His parents encouraged him to play and he said that "even though football takes up a lot of time I will probably continue to play these next few years."

Besides participating in football and soccer, Warren was also nick-named "sophomore cheerleader" by class sponsor Mrs. Thompson. Last year he was elected most humorous freshman, but doubts he will regain his title because, "I ran out of funny things to say," he said.

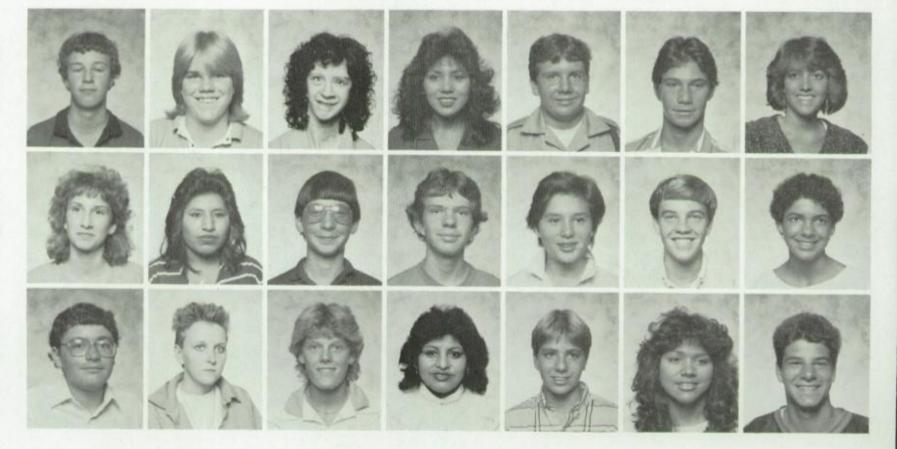

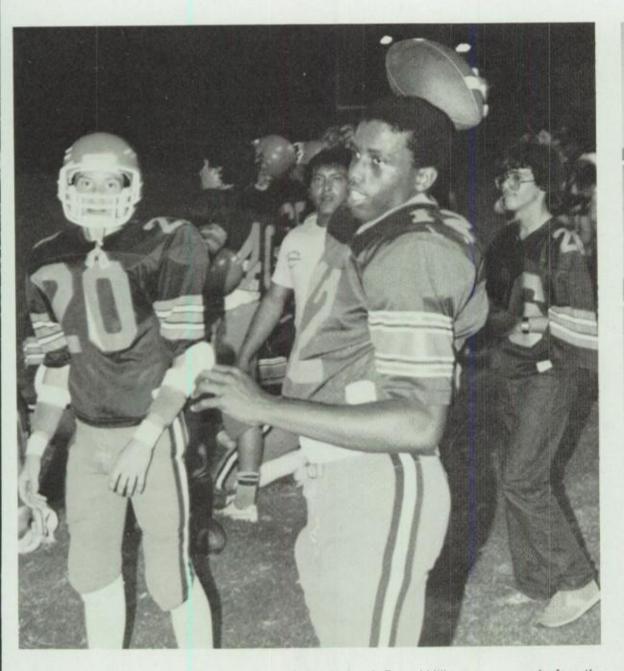

Warrin Gesin was one of the few sophomores selected for the Varsity squad this year.

Hatch Travels Abroad

Most people think it would be fun to be a world-wide traveler like Laurie Hatch. She was born in Chile, lived there for four years, and then moved to Toquepala Cvajona, Peru for just a year. She went to school in Ilo, Peru.

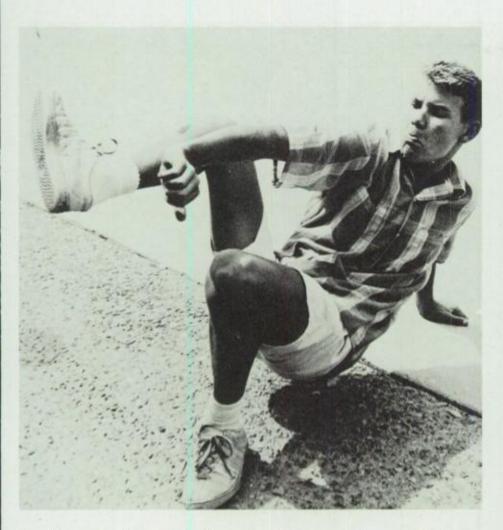

She then came to the U.S. Oregon was her first stop. After three years, her family moved to Mexico for four months and then went back to Douglas, Arizona. For four years she went to a private school right on the U.S./ Mexico border. Finally, she made her way to Tempe.

Here at Marcos she is involved in many clubs like Spanish, Ski Club, Jr. Civitan, and Young Life. She also competes in sports such as junior varsity volleyball, J.V. softball, and J.V. tennis.

She feels living and growing up in different environments has helped her have a range of friends from many places and learn how to speak a second language (Spanish).

"I feel very fortunate to have been able to have these opportunities," commented Laurie. "It has helped me meet a variety of different people and learn many customs from around the world."

Cello First Chair Honored

Sophomore Lisa Palmer is both academically and musically inclined.

For the past year, she has maintained a 4.6 grade point average and has received many awards for her academic merit. She attributes her high grades to her ability to read since the age of four.

"I like the way it sounds when all the instruments are playing together."

Lisa has played the cello for the past six years, and is the first chair in the Marcos de Niza Orchestra. She is also a member of the Mesa Symphony Orchestra. She has received a scholarship from the Arizona Cello Society to go towards Northern Arizona University Music Camp, and another one to go towards Tantazona Music Camp. When Lisa was asked what the contributing factors were to her success she replied, "My mom made me do it."

Lisa has lived in Tempe all her life, and is the oldest of five children. She has "one sister and three too many brothers."

In her spare time she enjoys hiking, camping, and water skiing. She also works with computers at an accounting firm and is actively involved in her church.

When Palmer was asked what she liked most about music she replied, "I like the way it sounds when all the instruments are playing together." She also plays the piano, "but not as well as the cello."

Palmer has not made a definite decision concerning her college education other than the fact that she will be going and majoring in music.

Athletics Second Place

Diving and tennis are two interests for sophomore Gerard de los Santos.

Although this is De Los Santos' first year of diving, he lettered and advanced to divisionals. Some of the dives that he did in competition were double front somersaults, double back somersaults, and reverse somersaults. "Diving is fun but it takes a lot of practice, just like everything else," said de los Santos.

Tennis is another sport that he participates in. Playing Tennis for two years, he has won two satalite tournaments in the 16 and 18-year-old brackets. He was 15 years old when the tournaments took place.

Aside from sports, he shows his dedication toward his studies with a high grade point average. "I feel that my academics are the most important thing at this point during school," said de los Santos.

In the future he plans to dive and play tennis for his remaining years of high school.

"He is a very dedicated student," said English teacher Mrs. Carolyn James.

Kelley and Kerrie Arredondo participated in swimming, softball, volleyball, and ski club. Kelley also participated in basketball and was chosen to the Mayor's Youth Advisory Club. Kerrie was also a member of the Padre Press.

Kelley and Kerrie have lived in Arizona all of their lives. They both like to ski, go places together and have many of the same friends.

Kelley and Kerrie first started swimming when they were four years old. Their father, who is a swimming coach, was the one who got them started, and he has worked with them ever since.

As freshmen, Kelley and Kerrie both lettered on the varsity swim team. Kelley said, "My goal for the swim season was to win state." Kerrie also dreams of winning state in the breaststroke.

Being a little younger than everybody else did not stop Burt Perrine. When he was in seventh grade, he was training and running cross country meets with the Marcos De Niza team.

Perrine was born in California, and the weather in there permitted Burt to run with less effort, but he claims, "it is more challenging to run Arizona."

Concerning his training he said, "It takes a lot of training, discipline, and you have to like running a lot. The coach is a big part of it too."

Having just completed the ninth grade, he enjoyed his first year in high school. He thought there was too much homework, but he also knew it

"It takes a lot of training, discipline, and you have to like running a lot."

Besides cross country and track he also enjoys playing badminton.

His favorite subjects in school were Spanish, and Physical Science.

Perrine credits his family and friends for the encouragement which led to his success, but most of all he thanks his coaches for the time and effort they put into coaching him.

Freshman Enjoys Piano

Miriam Tse was born in Hong Kong, and with her mother's encouragement, began playing the piano at the age of five. When she was ten, her family moved to the United States, and Miriam continued her lessons from a professor at ASU.

Since then, she has succeeded in winning various awards. Her brothers, Winfred, 21, and Joel, 18, who also play instruments, the violin and flute, accompany her as a trio in some competitions. When asked why she chose the piano over any other instrument, Miriam stated, "Because you can play more types of music on the piano."

Miriam plays the piano with the Marcos de Niza Concert Band, and is also enrolled in advanced piano. She also plays in services at the Chinese Church of Alliance, where her father is a minister.

Miriam practices about two hours daily. "Practicing piano helps me to relax and forget about things for awhile." Her 4.0 grade point average shows she doesn't forget too much and is dedicated to her school work as well.

After completing high school, Miriam would like to attend A.S.U. and major in music performance.

Miram Tse enjoys playing the piano competively and for relaxation.

President Gets Involved

For freshman Michelle Guzman meeting interesting people was a memorable experience.

Guzman was actively involved in ski club and student council the past year. "I had never been in snow and everybody was telling me how fun snow is," was the reason Guzman gave for joining the ski club.

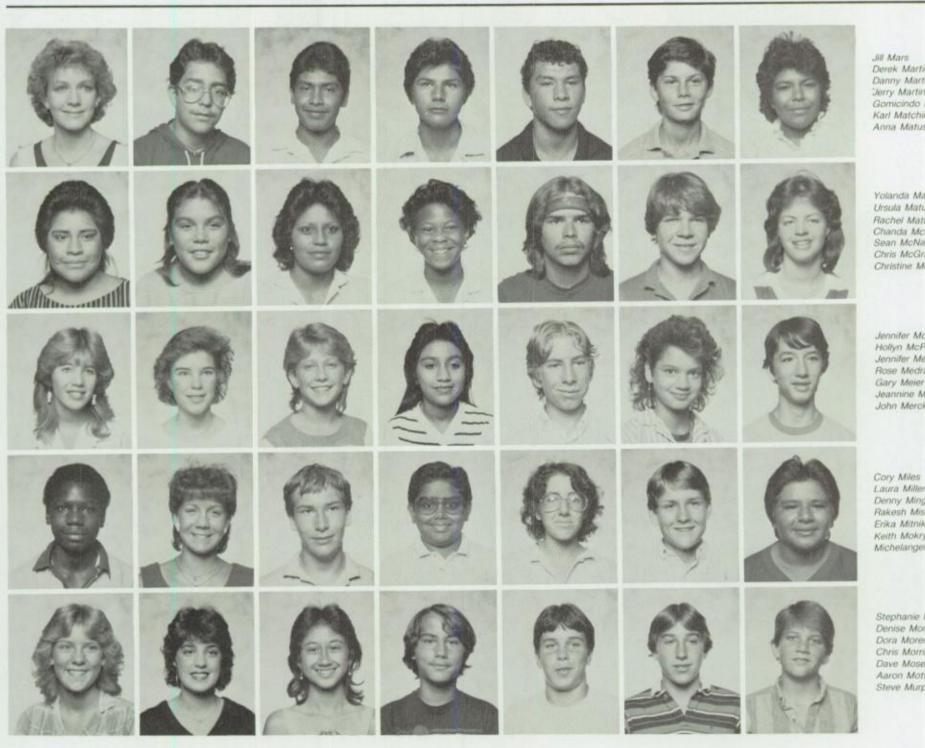

In student council, Guzman was freshman class president. She helped to set up the candy sale and the car wash. All through highschool, Guzman plans to run for office. "The reason I got involved was my brothers were always involved."

Guzman's other hobbies include clothes, music, watching old movies, and spending the day at Kiwanis Park. Michelle started watching old movies because her sister always watched them. Guzman feels that old movies are being forgotten by the new movies.

When asked how she liked Marcos, Guzman commented that she liked it because "people want to go places and there's a lot of school spirit."

As Buckland is only a freshman this year, she has excelled early in the sport of judo, and plans to continue working hard throughout high school.

Judo Affords Competition

Dawn Buckland is truely a unique person. Dawn excels at the sport of Judo, which by itself is a tremendous accomplishment, but she also travels around the country competing against girls her own age.

"I like Judo because it gives me competition, and I get to meet people that are interested in the same things I am," said Buckland.

Buckland describes Judo as, "A sport at which you attempt to get your opponent off balance and throw them, like wrestling." Her brothers got her interested in Judo, because they really enjoyed it and wanted her to get involved in a sport.

She practices three nights a week for two hours. "I like Judo because it gives me competition, and I also get to meet people that are interested in the same things I am," said Buckland.

One of her many accomplishments in Judo included placing third in the nation last summer. She has also placed in other tournaments in Las Vegas and in other cities as well.

Glimmers demics Of Academics

With the increase of the academic requirements finally getting underway this year, academics are playing an important role with all Marcos students. Teachers in the English, math, science, foreign language, social studies, business, home economics, and physical education departments shared their wide variety of knowledge with students to create a diversely educated student body.

Physics teacher Mr. Malcolm Wells proved that our faculty is outstanding when he was named science teacher of the year by the Arizona Science Teachers Association. This honor reflects the high quality of the entire faculty at Marcos and the quality of the education that the students receive here.

Plans Propose Changes For Marcos Campus

The Tempe Union High School District School Board was encouraged by the passing of a major bond election on February 11. This will add facilities to all the high school campuses and Marcos de Niza is scheduled to have an auditorium and gym annex built. This bond will allow an additional $50 million to be used for district needs over the next five to six years, according to Dr. Thomas Parker, district superintendent.

Of the four Tempe high schools, MdN will be the one most affected by the bond passing. Projects such as an auditorium, a second gymnasium, a women's locker room and an all-weather track field are just a few of the things that MdN will receive. The district in general will use the funds for two 50-acre high school sites.

Another area affected will be the performing arts, which includes drama, band, and choir. Drama department sponsor, Miss Dixie Partee, said she feels that the bond passing shows increasing public interest in the arts and entertainment.

The $50 million issue was passed by a total of 205 votes, with the strongest support shown in the southeast area of the district.

Since the money from the bond will greatly benefit the physical education department at MdN, P.E. department chairperson, Miss Judy Hoke, was very pleased.

When asked why it has taken so long for these facilities to be built, Dr. Parker said: "It was only about a year ago when we paid off the bonds that were used to build Corona del Sol."

Dr. Parker said that he feels the bonds should take care of all the districts needs facility-wise for some time to come. He said teachers should continue emphasising the development of critical-thinking skills, study habits and quality education in general. "Not a school district in the country will be better than us."

Mr. Bill Cox is the personnel manager of district administrators.

Mr. Dudley Stringer keeps business in order as business manager.

Administration

The school year, 1984-1985, has been very rewarding for both students and staff. Many scholarships have been awarded to our student body, our clubs have been very active and our athletic teams have been successful. The interest of this year's student body in academics has been outstanding. We have more students than ever before training in computer classes, in math and in science. I think this speaks very highly for both the staff and student body. It would be difficult to enumerate all the highlights of the year, but I want you to know that the hard work of the student body has not gone unnotived. Student Council, the newspaper, yearbook staffs, and the clubs and organizations have contributed greatly and enhanced the activity and the academic program at Marcos de Niza High School. I would like to wish the graduating seniors success in the future and realize that many of them will make lasting contributions to our community and state, and hopefully to our country.

Principals Praise Students For Spirit, Academics

As principal at Marcos de Niza, Dr. Bill Fitzgerald feels that this year has been one of especially high school spirit.

"I think that the students have shown a lot of school spirit this year," Dr. Fitzger-ald commented. He added that the athletic programs were very impressive this year, and it seemed that more people got involved as a result.

"The football season was surprising," said Mr. Bill Vanney, the assistant principal in charge of athletics. He referred to the football team beating predictions for an ill-fated season made by some skeptics.

Mr. Vic Sanchez, an assistant principal at MdN, said the seriousness of the students about school this year was outstanding.

"Student/teacher morale was up," Mr. Sanchez further expressed.

Dr. Gloria Smith, also an assistant principal, commented on the student body, "I believe this year's student body was one of the most enjoyable groups ever because they had a serious intent to do well in school."

Mr. Vanney assistant principal gets his mail out of the faculty mailboxes in the office. Mr. Sanchez discusses an important matter with senior, Todd Young. Librarian, Sheila Walrath, is one of the many people who keeps the library organized and up to date.

Mrs. Chavez helps keep Dr. Fitzgerald's day organized.

New Machines, Programs Provide Staff Efficiency

This year was marked by new requirements and accomplishments for the library and the counseling department of Marcos de Niza.

In the library, a new and very expensive machine was received, which can produce a printed copy of microfilm that a magazine has been transferred to. Before this, students could view the microfilm on a projector, but could not get a printed copy of the magazine. "We're very excited about our new machine," commented librarians Shelia Walrath and Patricia Whatley.

With the basic goal to help the students, the library staff helped "to develop goals and guidelines for the teaching of the courses." The staff is also working hard at acquiring cable television, that teachers will be able to use when they feel that a program would be appropriate for their classes to watch.

Mrs. Walrath added that the library this year expanded in volume as well and she pointed out that many new files were added to the already large card catalog system.

In the counseling department, Mr. David Meyer expressed his praise for a good year. "This has been a year that we really worked toward closer communication with parents," said Meyer. For this cause, there is now a newsletter sent to parents periodically.

In addition, the couneling staff set up a new scholarship this year for seniors. The scholarship is funded only by the counselors at Marcos, who turn over all money earned by administering SAT tests to the fund.

The counselors include Lynn Crowley, Manuel Torres, Phil Simeone, David Meyer, Manuel Lira, and Mrs. Chavez.

The growing use of computers has certainly made a mark on the Mathematics Department this year. Frequent use of the computers in the classrooms adds a new dimension for the 80's decade.

Marcos de Niza students clearly were getting experience using computers and became familiar with terminology used in the business world today. Even freshmen basic math students were allowed access and utilized the new equipment daily. This new emphasis led to the adopting of a new two-week unit on computer literacy.

Reading, English Requirements To Improve Student's Future

The English and Reading Departments made extensive improvements on this year's scholastic offerings. There were new teachers, new ideas, and new concepts tried out in different classes.

New teachers this year include Mrs. Carolyn James, who along with teaching English is also the yearbook sponsor. Also, Mrs. Susan Burger who teaches EFS clinic, and Mrs. Susan Lamphier, who teaches Freshman and Sophomore English, are new to the department. "The school is very fortunate to have had them added to the staff," commented Mrs. Kathrine Watson, department chairman.

The English department sponsored many essay contests, several of which awarded scholarships. The scholarship center was a newly organized program this year by Mrs. Jan Cummings in room 139 and will be continued next year.

"A new English Communication Center was proposed by Mrs. Linda LaFontain for students enrolled in Freshman and Sophomore Communications." said Mrs. Watson. This program would assist students with the use of computers and tutors.

In all classes this year there was more emphasis on improving composition skills, and classical literature was used as a source of concept that were explored in writing.

In each class, the semester exam included questions asked in the same format as the SAT and the ACT, which are college entrance exams. This will give the students familiarity with the format of the SAT or the ACT.

This year was a year of marked improvements for the English and Reading Departments which will be continued next year.

Mrs. Thompson explains the finer points of English to Judyth Stinsman, Jay Goodman and Lisa Ortega in her Freshman English class.

Languages Serve To Promote Better Communication Skills

New programs, new teachers and better communication was what the Marcos de Niza foreign language department introduced the students this year.

Mrs. Norma Garcia, Spanish teacher and also head of the department, commented, "We've had a wonderful year and we look forward to many more productive years working together."

This year a new French program was designed, testing was coordinated and new materials, such as new French books, were bought. There were also many things the French club has accomplished too. "The French Club this year supported the Statue of Liberty Restoration Fund, has donated to charities, has attended a French opera, French plays and other cultural outings." Commented Ms. Judy Pomoa, French teacher.

"More kids took the advanced foreign language classes because the 1-2 programs inspire them."

Spanish program this year went up to 9-10, which is independent study. French went up to 7-8, and German went up to 5-6. Spanish, because of the number of Spanish speaking people seems to be the most studied language here at Marcos.

The foreign language department did indeed improve many of our programs this year at Marcos. "More kids took the advanced foreign language classes because the 1-2 programs inspire them." commented Mr. Munoz, Spanish teacher.

Still, the department plans to go beyond these achievements in next school year.

Departmental Improvements Enhance Science, Health Year

Mr. Bud Rollins, head of the science department at Marcos de Niza, feels that science is an important part of his life and should be important to everyone. "As I grew up here in Tempe, I have always enjoyed athletics and the outdoors ... camping and fishing on the Black River. This, naturally, has carried over into my studies of biology, ecology, and botany."

Two possible course additions for the science department, Honors Chemistry/ Physics and General Zoology, are currently being discussed. Honors Chemistry/Physics would be placed on the freshman level, thus moving our Honors Biology course to the sophomore year. General Zoology would be taught on the Junior/Senior level. This course would look at the animal kingdom in depth, studying the anatomical, physiological, and behavioral characteristics of each group.

Mr. Malcom Wells, Honors Physics teacher, who received the Outstanding Science Teachers Award at the ASTA convention, is producing computer oriented physics labs for his students. We as a department are beginning to utilize computers both as an instructional aid as well as using them to collect data in actual science experiments.

"The science and health departments at Marcos de Niza are excellent and should be a part of every student's life."

Within the science department, there is the health program. The health teachers are Ms. Scheer and Mr. LaBarge. The Biology program is coordinated to cover the anatomical and physiological aspect of life, while the health course concentrates on the social, mental, and emotional aspects to healthful living.

The science and health departments at Marcos de Niza are excellent and should be a part of every student's life. "I wish more young people would consider a teaching career in science and Math . . . I recommend it," says Mr. Rollins.

Physical Education Brivers Ed

Simulators Teach Drivers; Exercise Stimulates Students

One of the many popular classes at Marcos De Niza among the sophomore students this year was Driver's Education.

Something many of the students enjoyed this past year was having the access to the simulators. Sophomore Laurie Hatch commented, "I like using the simulators because it increased my knowledge as a driver."

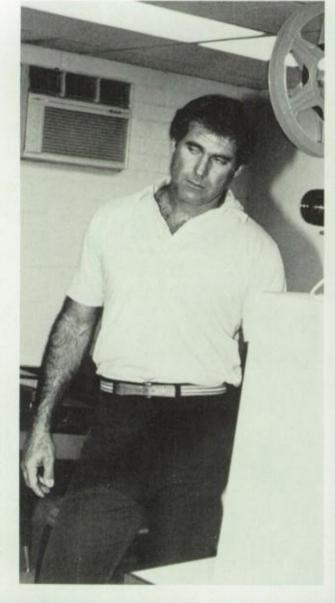

Mr. Dutton and Mr. Adler taught this course. Miss Judy Hoke, the department chairman, stated, "They are the best men

Mr. Dutton said, "The purpose of this class is to make our students better and safer drivers."

With more than half the students taking physical education, all co-ed classes, students had a choice of weight training, modern dance, or physical education. In weight training they had the option of toning muscles by using light weights or building up muscles by using heavier

Practical Experiences Teach "On Your Own" Living Skills

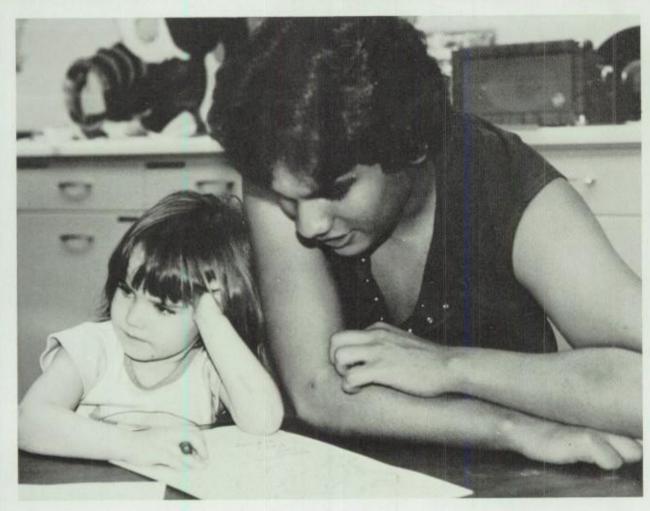

Home Economics is not just cooking and sewing. "I believe our students are getting some very sound information which will prove invaluable to their futures." said Mrs. Jama Crane, head of the Home Economics department.

"I feel we have a strong Home Economics department with courses to accomodate almost every type of student from homemaker, to vocationally oriented students, to the college bound student," commented Mrs. Crane. A larger part of the Home Ec department is HERO, or Home Ec Related Occupation. HERO is a course where instead of getting just class experience, the student actually get onthe-job training.

Home Furnishings is a hopeful for next year. Home Furnishings deals with various room arrangements in mood, color, and texture.

Mrs. Crane feels this year's department has been great and says, "... the student leaves our program with very important skills learned."

Performing Arts

bly.

Continuous Practice Attempts to Perfect Performing Arts

Rapidly expanding, the Performing Arts department at Marcos de Niza includes the band, orchestra, drama, and choir.

The Padre Band performs at all Varsity football and basketball games.

The members of the Padre Band attend band camp each summer at Embry-Riddle University. "Band Camp is where we 'get together' physically and emotionally," commented Mr. Rick Clary, director of the Padre Band, "We set goals and objectives for the entire year."

The orchestra here at Marcos has been rapidly growing. Just two years ago the orchestra consisted of only 10 students, this year they brought it up to 30 members. Mrs. Jennifer Silk, the orchestra conductor said, "I was very pleased with the growth and the hard work that each individual put in to make up the orchestra."

Drama gives the students the opportunity to learn about acting and to perform in various dramas.

The choir program consists of Mixed Choir, Madrigals, and Acapella Choir. The members strived for perfection all year long.

The Performing Art Department's goal was to perfect student's performance in front of audiences by allowing them to work in front of audiences.

Choir requires many hours of practice as these two students find out.

The Madrigal Singers perform with Angle Davis as accompanist.

Judi Goodwin, senior, practices her saxaphone for the Padre Band.

JROTC Program Gives Practical Army Training Experiences

Members of Marcos De Niza JROTC can be seen all over the school's campus at least once a week. JROTC provides students with military history, leadership skills, knowledge of weapons, and skills in discipline.

Special teams of the JROTC and their commanders are Men's Drill Team commanded by Pat Patterson, and Women's Drill Team commanded by Frances Warfield. Color Guard, which presents the flag at all home football and basketball games, is commanded by Steve Wiley, Lee Davis commands Raiders, and the First Aid Team.

Victor Carreras and the Advanced Drill Team were able to see other Drill Teams preform across the state in the Brigade meet at Treavor Brown High School and in the "B" Competition at Central High School.

The Raiders are the special forces of the Corps. Commanded by Lee Davis, the Raiders have had extra-curricular activities such as a river trip down the Salt River, strict and advanced repel training, and overnight training at Seven Springs.

A new group formed by Lee Davis called RAG, is a special group of advanced Raiders whose job was to help all the new cadets become better Raiders.

The most exciting part of the year was Annual Formal Inspection where the cadets took almost the whole day of school to be inspected on things they were taught during the school year and the trip to Fort Huachuca over spring break.

JROTC is under the command of Army Instructor S.F.C. Fisher and Senior Army Instructor Lt. Col. Obermeier. Col. Obermeier has come to Marcos for the first time this year after being in the service for 23 years. "I love it here (MDN) and hope to be staying a while," said Col. Obermeier.

Exciting Activities Enthuse Social Studies Students

The Social Studies Department had exciting surprises this past year and one edition was the Honors History taught by Mr. Draper. They conducted indepth research and recited oral class reports, using video tapes. Geography which was also taught by Mr. Draper, was a new requirement this year for the present freshman. They produced a new newspaper this year called the "Fourth Review" and it summarized international news and local events.

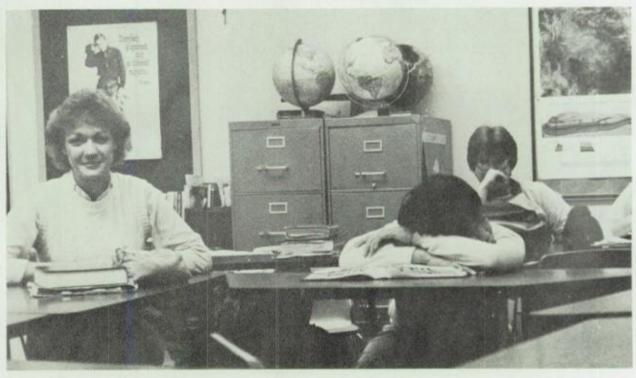

This year Mr. Snyder was introduced to the History Department at Marcos. He has taught throughout the district and finds the staff and students at Marcos to be very friendly. "Marcos de Niza is a fine school." stated Mr. Snyder.

The Close-up trip to Washington D.C.

took place April 7-13. This group of students were taken behind the scenes of the White House, where they attended seminars and had group discussions. Scholarships were granted to specific students by the Close-up Foundation do to Academic Achievement.

A special scholarship was given to a student here at Marcos to be a V.I.P. accompaning Sen. John McCain for one week in his daily routine of governmental meetings and speeches. The scholarship was based on academic achievement, community and school involvement and a strong interest in a political career.

The 1984-85 year brought a lot of new activities to the Social Studies Department and students were involved in classes, and trips.

Mr. Draper draws attention to a special place on the map.

New Programs, New Equipment Assist Art Departments' Growth

"The staff is constantly trying to improve the program." remarked Mr. Painter, the chairman of Industrial Arts Department. He stated that they have also established a new special education program in woodwork. For the future, the automotive department has planned on buying a new diagnostic computer that will help the students expand their skills in mechanics.

Although they had already bought new machines for the auto department, they did not stop there. The drafting class purchased some new computers to aid in drafting for next year. This will enable students to learn the latest technology in their field of choice.

During last summer, the school built a new photography room. "It was a big step up from developing film in a small closet to a new photography lab", added Mrs. McKeown, the Arts Chairman. Every year the department has an art sale. They made over $1,000.00 this year. Ninety percent of the profit went to the students and the other ten percent went to a scholarship fund to be given out at the end of the year. "Each year seems to be more successful for the students than the one before", added Mrs. McKeown.

Students Crowd Classes Due To Business Field Popularity

Due to the intense interest in computers this year the business department was very popular. "We've improved quite a bit in our computer classes." commented Mr. Ron Cosner head of the business department.

Two of the busiest rooms in the business department this year have been room 101 where there are seven hours a day taught in that room, this includes a zero hour. That room was used as a Word Processing. Room 113 was also a busy room having six hours held in it. 113 was the room used to teach Intro. Computers and a Basic Programming class. After the increase of students signed up for a business class it was nice to have Mr. Ferrazzi back who took a sabatical last year.

Although many people took a computer class, Mr. Cosner feels that, "Every student has the need for typing." Mr. Cosner explained that even students who will not go into a business career or go to college, typing is a skill necessary in any career!" Typing is a basic skill that every one should have." commented Mr. Cosner.

"I just enjoy teaching. You have to enjoy a job enough to work for 22 years at it." Cosner said referring to the years he worked at three different schools as a business teacher.

The business department was expanding this year and growth will be increasing next year in the department.

Special Education

New Classes, Equipment Help Special Student's Needs

This year has seen many new improvements for the Special Education program.

The Special Education program deals with learning disabilities, or mental handicaps, and physically handicapped students. The decision for a student to be placed in a special education class is decided by a team including the school psychologist, social worker, special ed. counselor, special ed. teacher, parent and student. "This is a program designed to help students with special needs." commented Ms. Sandy Brunk.

This year the department has received three new computers one of which was specially equipped for the physically handicapped to successfully use.

There was a new class tried this year, the Educable Mentally Handicapped student Community Based Career Involvement was offered to 11th and 12th graders. This class gave the students a chance to experience different occupations. It was taught by Mr. Stephen Noone.

"This is a program designed to help students with special needs."

Basic Woods was open for the first time this year, also. This was for the student not able to master Woods I easily. This program gives each student a chance to accomplish things that person may not have been able to in a regular class setting. Perhaps Ms. Doyle explains it best when she describes the students of these programs as, "special students."

After a summer of festivity, the '84-'85 school year began with reluctance, but friendly smiles balanced the impact of our again acquired academic responsibilities. As the year progressed, bonds of friendship knit us closely together, and we realized that school was not just an institution of learning, but a community of colorfully woven relations.

Upon graduation, when the last notes of the graduation march faded, the graduates departed from Marcos de Niza leaving behind all but their memories (the rockets showering the night sky at homecoming, cheers spiraling upward in the procession, and gatherings in the twilight hours). Their legacies will be the examples they have set in musical performances, scholastic awards, athletic contests, and acts of leadership. To those who follow, let them build on this foundation.

Roz Liano, Editor Kristie Drzwecki, and a friend, show spirit by dressing up for "Nerd day." All the beginning of the school year, the islands was a popular spot for eating lunch. . Debbie Ward keeps the glare of the lights from ruining her eyesight.

Padre fans cheer for joy as the Marcos football team captures another victory.

From The Editor:

When the seniors graduate, tears of joy and sorrow will fill their eyes. Joy, because they are finally entering into the adult world and sorrow because they are leaving old friends and a place that has been like a sacond home. They will always have fond memories of their alma mater. These graduates will leave Marcos de Niza a little older and a little wiser. Many are all proud of these people and they can be proud of themselves because they have represented Marcos well.
